

Back-to-work legislation:

WORKING PEOPLE IN ALBERTA ARE UNDER ATTACK

Since taking office, Jason Kenney and now Danielle Smith are clawing back the rights of working people in Alberta.

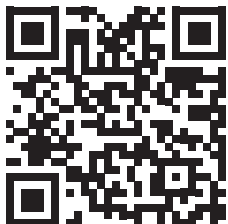

Back-to-work legislation ending the teachers' legal strike (Bill 2) is a breathtaking new attack on all unionized workers and our basic constitutional rights. It is a betrayal of what generations of Albertans have fought for at work.

The government had other options. Instead, Danielle Smith:

- ✗ stripped teachers of union rights,
- ✗ blocked legal challenges, and
- ✗ limited free speech.
