PREAMBLE

The Employer, Vancouver Co-operative Radio, and the Union, Unifor Local 3000, mutually contemplate the quiet enjoyment and administration in good faith of the Collective Agreement herein set out. To this end the following understanding of the relations among the members of the Co-operative and between the Co-operative and members of the Bargaining Unit shall prevail in the interpretation of the Agreement.

- (a) The Employer, Vancouver Co-operative Radio, is a legally incorporated Co-operative under the Co-operative Associations Act of British Columbia, and is owned by its shareholders who are subscribing members of the public.
- (b) The primary purpose of Vancouver Co-operative Radio is to produce creative and engaging programming for communities whose voices are underrepresented in the mainstream media on a not-for-profit basis. The production of radio programming is performed on a volunteer basis by member-shareholders.
- (c) The member-shareholders of the Vancouver Co-operative Radio elect a Board of Directors at each Annual General Meeting to act as their agents in all matters relevant to the realization of the Vancouver Co-operative Radio purposes.
- (d) One area of responsibility of the Board of Directors is to hire, lay-off, fire, produce, amend job descriptions for, and evaluate the job performance of permanent employees who are employed for administration of the station, and the provision of services to the membership.
- (e) The employees of the Vancouver Co-operative Radio are not hired to produce programming or to make programming policy, except as they are delegated by the Board of Directors to sit on its Committees and participate in policy-making.
- (f) This in no way limits the ability of employees to be members of the Vancouver Co-operative Radio or to produce programming on a volunteer basis; nor does it limit the ability of the Union to be a member of the Vancouver Co-operative Radio and to participate in the same manner as other members in programming of interest to its members or to organized labour generally.
- (g) Vancouver Co-operative Radio is an alternative media institution that endeavours to challenge traditional roles of hierarchy. All employees in the Bargaining Unit are paid the same rate since no one individual's time is worth more than another's.
- (h) All board members or its designee will attend a yearly Board orientation to be organized as soon as possible and no later than three (3) months after the Annual General Meeting.
- (i) The Employer will be referred to as the Board or its designee. The Staff will be referred to as the Employee.

4.05 EMPLOYMENT EQUITY POLICY

1. Preamble

The Board or its designee recognizes that members of certain groups within society have traditionally had little or no access to the media. As a community radio station, Vancouver Co-operative Radio is committed to ensuring that every reasonable attempt be made to have the composition of the paid and unpaid staff reflect the true diversity of the communities we serve.

We must ensure equitable representation and remuneration for everyone, including traditionally under-represented groups. Diversity in the station's staff is crucial to the station's attempts to become a better community service.

2. Objectives of Program

- (a) To ensure that the composition of Vancouver Co-operative Radio staff and volunteers reflects the diversity of the communities served by the station.

- (b) To ensure a welcoming and comfortable environment so that the station is accessible to the diversity of the communities Vancouver Co-operative Radio serves.

3. Guiding Principles

The Board or its designee is committed to applying the principles of employment equity to both its paid and volunteer staff.

Employment equity includes providing a welcoming environment for all individuals regardless of race, colour, age, physical appearance, sex (including pregnancy), sexual orientation, marital status, family status, ethnic origin, religious affiliation, political beliefs, disability, or record of offenses.

The Board or its designee is also committed to achieving and maintaining a representative work-force and to the implementation of measures to ensure the full application and advancement of groups which have traditionally been under-represented.

The Board or its designee commits to identify and remove any discrimination policies and practices found in the recruitment, selection, transfer, promotion, performance appraisal, training, career development, compensation, benefits, termination, and working conditions of paid and volunteer staff in all areas of the radio station. The Board or its designee agrees that it has a duty to accommodate short of undue financial hardship and, to the extent that it is possible, implement special measures to enable all employees to compete for positions and to work with others on an equal basis.

In support of its commitment to achieve and maintain a hospitable station environment for all paid and volunteer staff, the Board or its designee undertakes to provide ongoing education and training on human rights issues.

4. Office Atmosphere

The Board or its designee recognizes that employment equity means more than just the hiring and recruitment of under-represented groups. It also means creating an office atmosphere which welcomes these groups and encourages them to stay.

To that end, the Board or its designee will develop procedures and policies to help create such an atmosphere. The station will also ensure - short of undue financial hardship - that the offices and studios present as few obstacles as possible to people with disabilities.

5. Training/Development

The Board or its designee shall endeavour to create grant-paid positions which support and encourage the participation of under-represented individuals in station activities.

6. Monitoring and Accountability

The Board or its designee recognizes that an equitable workplace will not be created overnight. A Standing Employment Equity Committee shall be created if needed or called for by Management or the Union, with the mandate to monitor the progress of this Employment Equity Policy and to ensure that a regular workforce analysis is implemented to review all station systems and practices as they relate to employment and volunteer recruitment barriers.

The Committee will be responsible for developing and submitting an annual action plan to the Board of Directors and the station membership, reporting on strategies and progress in establishing an equitable workplace. This plan may contain, among other things, numerical and qualitative goals decided on by the Committee. Composition of this Committee shall reflect the long-term employment equity goal of the workplace that reflects the Vancouver area population (i.e. at least fifty percent (50%) of the Committee will be women, etc.)

ARTICLE 5 - UNION RELATIONS

At the request of either party, the parties agree to meet on the Board's paid staff time.
