International Women's Day by Unifor Local 52A Women's Committee

What is International Women's day?

On this day, March 8, we collectively strive for a more inclusive world where women are recognized and celebrated.

IWD 2024 is a significant occasion that deserves celebration for several reasons:

Honoring women's achievements, advancing gender equality, amplifying women's voices, promoting inclusion and diversity, and challenging stereotypes, just to name a few.

Celebrating International Women's Day is not just about a single day it's about recognizing the ongoing struggle for equality and committing to a future where every woman's potential is fully realized.
