PREAMBLE

PURPOSE OF AGREEMENT

The purpose of this Agreement is to promote and maintain harmonious relations between the Company and the employee, to stabilize the industry, to elevate the trade, to facilitate the peaceful adjustment of all disputes and grievances, to prevent strikes and lockouts, waste, unnecessary expense and avoidable delays in carrying on the work.

The Parties recognize and agree that the special nature of the hospitality industry dictates special and particular considerations in relation to the terms and conditions for the Members of the Union employed by the Employer. These special and particular considerations are dictated by a need to ensure that the public will be attracted to the Employer's place of business and that the public will favourably view the standards of service provided by the Employer, to the mutual benefit of the Parties to this Agreement.

ARTICLE 1 - BARGAINING AGENCY AND RECOGNITION

1.01 CERTIFIED BARGAINING AGENT

The Company agrees to recognize and bargain collectively and exclusively with the Union, so long as the Union remains the certified Bargaining Agent of the employees.

- (a) No employee shall be compelled to or allowed to enter into any individual contract or agreement with their Employer concerning the conditions of employment varying the conditions of employment contained herein.
- (b) No employee shall be asked to make a written or verbal agreement with the Employer covering hours of work, wages or conditions during the term of this Agreement.
- (c) Where the convenience of the Company or an employee can be enhanced, without the interest of either being generally impaired, special shifts may be mutually arranged between an employee, the Employer and a Representative of the Union.

1.02 EMPLOYEES COVERED

This Agreement shall cover all employees in the Restaurants except office employees or Managers.

1.03 MANAGEMENT PERFORMING BARGAINING UNIT WORK

Work customarily performed by the employees in the bargaining unit shall not be done by persons excluded from the scope and jurisdiction of this Agreement, except for the purpose of development, audit, quality control, on the job training, instruction of employees, in cases of emergency, or the current practice of Management performing duties necessary to ensure the efficient and hospitable operation of the business.

ARTICLE 2 - UNION RECOGNITION AND UNION SECURITY

2.01 UNION MEMBERSHIP

All employees, as defined in Section 1.02 above who, at the date of signing of this Agreement, are Members in good standing of the Union, or who later become Members of the Union, shall as a condition of continued employment, maintain membership in good standing in the Union for the duration of this Agreement or any continuation or renewal thereof. All employees employed after this Agreement becomes effective shall become Members of the Union upon completion of their first (1st) week of employment.

The Union shall distribute copies of the Collective Agreement to all employees within two (2) weeks of its printing and said printing shall take place within four (4) weeks of the ratification of the Agreement.

2.02 UNION DUES - DEDUCTION

The Company agrees to deduct, pursuant to written assignment of employees, from each pay period of the earnings of each employee, union dues and initiation fees from time to time fixed by the Union. In addition, assessments levied in accordance with the Constitution and By-laws of the Union will be deducted from Members of the Union upon proper written notification from the Local Executive of the Union.

2.03 UNION DUES - REMITTING

- (a) The total amount so deducted shall be remitted with an itemized statement to the Secretary Treasurer of the Local Union within fourteen (14) days following each pay date.

2.05 UNION ACCESS TO UNITS

An authorized Representative of the Union shall be permitted to enter the various units at any reasonable time in the interest of the employees covered by this Agreement, provided that the Manager on duty is first contacted, and that there will be no disruption of employees' duties.

2.06 NOTICE BOARDS

The Company agrees to provide the Union with an accessible protected notice board, that is visible to all staff, in each unit, upon which the Union President or a Delegate may post bulletins pertaining to union business, election of Officers,

When scheduled hours have been vacated due to an unexpected absence of an employee, or in an emergency, the Company will endeavour, where practicable, to cover such hours necessary to ensure proper and efficient operations. The most current information regarding leave provisions can be found at the Employment Standards website at <http://www.labour.gov.bc.ca/esb>.

(b) However, as a general guideline:

Parental Leave

Parental leaves are unpaid leaves which apply to biological and adopting parents in relation to a new child, with additional provisions if the child has physical, psychological or emotional conditions requiring additional parental care.

Pregnant employees are entitled to seventeen (17) weeks maternity leave, and up to sixty-one (61) additional weeks of unpaid parental leave immediately after pregnancy leave.

Parents who do not experience pregnancy are entitled to up to sixty-two (62) consecutive weeks of unpaid parental leave.

Requests for leave must be in writing, supported by a medical certificate, and given to the Employer at least four (4) weeks prior to the day the employee proposes to begin the leave.

- (i) Generally, pregnancy leaves begin no earlier than thirteen (13) weeks before the expected birth date, and end no later than seventeen (17) weeks after the actual birth date.
- (ii) The Company may require an employee to commence a leave of absence where their duties cannot reasonably be performed because of their pregnancy, and where alternative employment is not available.

The leave of absence shall continue until the employee provides a certificate from a medical practitioner stating that they are able to perform their duties.

- (iii) During parental leave, the Company shall maintain the employee's coverage in the applicable benefit plans of Article 7 providing the employee continues to pay their share of the cost of the respective plans.
- (iv) The Employer will be notified two (2) weeks in advance of the employee's anticipated date of return to work.
- (v) An employee returning from a pregnancy or parental leave will be returned to the position they held before the leave or a comparable position.
- (vi) The Employer will not terminate an employee or change a condition of employment of an employee because of the employee's pregnancy or parental leave unless the employee is absent for a period exceeding the permitted leave.

(c) Family Responsibility Leave

Family responsibility leave provides up to five (5) days unpaid leave to meet responsibilities related to immediate family care.

(d) Domestic or Sexual Violence Leave

The Employer will apply the provisions of the BC Employment Standards Act for requests for leaves respecting domestic or sexual violence. These include the paid and unpaid days and the eligibility process. The most current information regarding these leaves can be found at the BC Employment Standards website.

8.07 BEREAVEMENT LEAVE

An employee absent due to death in their immediate family during periods when they are both scheduled and available for work, shall receive three (3) days' pay for such time lost. Immediate family comprises an employee's children, spouse, parents, siblings, parents-in-law, step-parents, foster children and any relative residing permanently with the employee.

In the event an employee requests additional time off, such time without pay may be granted by the Manager to a maximum of ten (10) work days.

Where the deceased is the employee's grandparent, the sibling of an employee's spouse, or the spouse of an employee's child, the employee shall receive one (1) day off with pay, if the deceased did not reside with the employee.

Bereavement leave benefits shall not be implemented during vacation, sick leave, leave or absence, or leave due to a work-related injury. The Company and Unifor agree that discrimination and/or harassment of or abusive conduct towards any employee because of any prohibited grounds, as stated in the provincial Human Rights Code is absolutely prohibited. These grounds include sex, colour, national origin, religion, age, marital status, sexual orientation, or disability.

Every employee has the right to work in an environment of mutual respect, free from discrimination and harassment including sexual harassment. Action contravening this code of conduct will constitute grounds for discipline.

Properly discharged supervisory responsibilities, including the delegation of work assignments, and/or the assessment of discipline, do not constitute harassment. Neither is the intention of this language to inhibit free speech or interfere with normal social relations.

16.02 HARASSMENT AND HUMAN RIGHTS

Sexual or human rights harassment could include any deliberate and/or repeated, unwelcome behaviour, comment, gesture, or contact that might on reasonable grounds be perceived as creating an uncomfortable working environment, or placing a condition of an inappropriate nature on employment or any opportunity for training or promotion.

16.03 COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

If an employee believes that they have been harassed or discriminated against on the basis of any prohibited ground, there are specific steps they should take to put a stop to it:

- Request the alleged harasser(s) to stop;
- Inform the individual(s) that the behaviour is unwanted and unwelcome.

In the event this doesn't put a stop to the behaviour, or the harassment is of a serious nature, or if the employee does not feel comfortable confronting the alleged harasser(s), they should immediately document the events and bring their concerns to the attention of their Manager or Company or Unifor Local or National Representative.

All formal complaints will be investigated promptly, thoroughly and jointly in a manner that protects the privacy interest of all involved - the accused offender as well as the complainant. The name of the complainant or the accused offender or the circumstances related to the complaint will not be disclosed except where disclosure is necessary for the purpose of investigating the complaint or taking related disciplinary measures. The individual accused of harassment has the right to know and respond to all allegations. The Company will take actions it considers appropriate to resolve the complaint. Should the complainant decide appropriate action has not been taken; a grievance may be filed and admitted at Step 3 of the grievance procedure.

Optional Life Insurance

Employee has the option to purchase an additional thirty thousand dollars ($30,000.00) of Group Life Insurance. The premium is determined by the employee's age, and is totally employee paid. Enrolment is subject to acceptable medical evidence, if required.

(b) Accidental Death and Dismemberment Insurance: Amount thirty thousand dollars ($30,000)

Principal amount is thirty thousand dollars ($30,000.00). This amount will be paid to the beneficiary if death results from an accident. This amount will be paid to the employee for the accidental loss of two (2) limbs or two (2) eyes. A lesser amount is payable for the accidental loss of one (1) eye or one (1) limb.

(c) Weekly Indemnity Plan

Benefit Level: Seventy-five percent (75%) of average weekly earnings, maximum benefit of sixty percent (60%) of the E.I. insurable maximum.

Benefits begin on the first (1st) day of disability due to injury, the first (1st) day of hospitalization (includes non-elective/non-cosmetic day surgery), or the third (3rd) day of disability due to sickness.

The calculation of benefits is based on the employee's normally scheduled days during the period that the employee is on Weekly Indemnity.

Note:

Calculation of "average weekly earnings" is completed annually/semi-annually in conjunction with dates of new job rates per the Collective Agreement. Therefore, if individual job reclassification occurs at other times during the year, the increased wage will not be reflected until the next recalculation of benefits.

- Weekly Indemnity benefits will be paid for a maximum of fifteen (15) weeks for each period of disability. If an employee received the maximum fifteen (15) week benefit and is absent again, they must have returned to work for at least a two (2) week period before a new claim will be considered;
- Benefits are not payable for pregnancy, or injury covered by WorkSafeBC;
- If illness is certified by a paramedical practitioner, the employee must be referred by a licensed physician.

An employee making a weekly indemnity claim will draw on BC's current legislated up to five (5) days, Employer paid, sick leave to offset the above waiting period, and/or once weekly indemnity is exhausted. An employee who qualifies for WI through injury and/or hospitalization will start WI on the first (1st) day.

If the Provincial Government changes the BC ESA paid sick day program during the life of the Agreement, the Employer will make the corresponding changes to the program and the required changes to the Collective Agreement.

If the Provincial Government or Federal Government adds a more encompassing disability program for employees, the Employer has the right to integrate such program with the existing WI and paid sick days provisions. Such integration may reduce the cost of the WI to the Employer and participating employees, but will not result in overall reduction of benefits provided.

RE: ARTICLE 4.10(D) OF THE COLLECTIVE AGREEMENT

An employee's posted shift will not be changed by Management without the employee's agreement unless Management gives the employee at least four (4) hours personal notice. In case of a complete deletion of a shift, Management will first offer the employee an alternative shift equal to or greater than the original shift, on the same day as the completely deleted shift. This provision will not apply when the deletion of the shift is caused by an emergency.

In the interests of making the most effective schedule and minimizing disruptions to other employees as well as operations, it is the employee's responsibility to give as much notice as possible if they are unable to make their scheduled shift.

Subject to the operational needs of the business, employees who indicate in advance their availability for unscheduled straight time shifts and/or hours on a call-in list posted weekly for that purpose, will be offered the additional hours and/or shifts as they become available, in order of seniority. The call-in lists shall be posted not later than 3:00 p.m. on Wednesday of each week in the same location as the weekly work schedule.

If an employee has not indicated to the Company that they wish their name removed from the call-in list, and refuses a call in, then their name will be placed at the bottom of the call-in list on the next date the employee has signed the list.

At the Employer's discretion, in the event of unusual circumstances or special need, the Employer may offer available shifts to employees at locations other than their home store.

RE: ARTICLE 4.18 AND 4.19 OF THE COLLECTIVE AGREEMENT

It is understood that Articles 4.18 and 4.19 shall be interpreted in accordance with the spirit and intent set out below:

The Company and the Union recognize that the restaurant business cycle fluctuates, and consequently that specific scheduling requirements will fluctuate to reflect this reality. The Company agrees that senior employees have an implicit right to obtain more hours through the work week than junior employees; this is a basic tenet of the Employer employee relationship. Therefore, to the greatest extent possible, senior employees are entitled to be scheduled to the maximum available straight time shifts through the work week consistent with the provision of Article 4 (Days and Hours of Work and Overtime).

Planned reductions in hours and/or shifts will affect the most junior employee in the classification except when a reduction to that employee's shifts or hours would impact on an acceptable level of staffing and except when more senior employees request, in writing, fewer or limited hours and/or shifts during that week.

To ensure that the joint commitment as stated above is put into practice, the Company and the Union agree to meet on a regular basis to develop, monitor and improve the specific scheduling process throughout the entire operation. Should the Parties mutually agree to better processes which will improve the scheduling language and transparency, they will be implemented.

When there is a disagreement on a specific scheduling application it shall be grieved at Step 2 and failing agreement at that level the matter shall be pursued in accordance with the provisions of Article 12.

RE: SET SHIFTS

The Company and the Union recognize that, over time, employees regularly scheduled (independent of requests) or temporarily assigned shifts come to rely upon that pattern of scheduling.

The Parties agree that, while Management is entitled to alter lengths of shifts and start and finishing times in accordance with Article 4 and the Letters of Understanding regarding Article 4 (Maximization/staffing levels and call-in), an employee's pattern of scheduling, which may include temporary assignments to other classifications, once established for a period of nine (9) months or more, shall not be changed unless:

- (i) Such change is necessary to preserve the entitlement to hours of a senior classified employee; or
- (ii) In accordance with Articles 8.08 (b) and (c) because of the return to work of an employee who regularly worked the shifts prior to a temporary assignment; or
- (iii) The failure of the employee to return from an approved leave in accordance with Article 8.08 (b) results in a posting to which the employee(s) who worked the temporary assignment is not the successful applicant.

Employees working set shifts or restricted schedules shall remain available to be scheduled for alternate shifts subject to the operating needs of the business unless:

- (a) Such employees were hired on a restricted schedule basis; or
A request for a restricted schedule has been agreed to in writing by Management.
- (b) In cases (a) above, if there is a bona-fide business need to change an employee's pattern of scheduling, the employee will be provided at least four (4) weeks' notice of such change.
- (c) An employee who restricts their availability as outlined in (a) above must wait for shifts to vacate (temporarily or otherwise) prior to increasing.
- (d) All employees subject to schedule changes shall be notified of the need for the change at least two (2) days in advance of the posting of the work schedule where the change will occur.

A Busser will not be scheduled independently of a Greeter/Seater or a legacied Host.

RE: OPTION TO WORK A 6TH SHIFT IF AVAILABLE

Notwithstanding the provisions of Articles 4.01, 4.02 and 4.03 and the Letters of Understanding #1 regarding 4.10(d) (call-in list) and #3 (maximization/staffing levels), the Parties agree that in an attempt to provide employees the opportunity to maximize their hours, employees may voluntarily opt to be scheduled for, or pick up, a maximum of six (6) shifts at straight time, provided they do not exceed forty (40) hours within one (1) week.

Employees must indicate, in writing prior to the posting of the schedule, their request to be scheduled a 6th shift, if available.

In addition, employees scheduled less than forty (40) hours in a week may indicate on the call-in list posted for this purpose their interest in picking up additional straight time shifts and hours including a 6th shift, provided doing so does not place them in an over forty (40) hour position.

6th shifts, whether scheduled or by call in, must be offered in order of seniority to those who have indicated their interest in working 6th shifts.

RE: GRATUITIES

The Parties recognize that gratuities are generated by the experience of the guest, which is contributed to by all employees of the restaurant.

All gratutied employees are part of the current tip pool arrangement and tip out four point five percent (4.5%) of their food sales for dine in. Where there is a Bartender /Bar Server on shift, gratuity employees tip out four point five percent (4.5%) of their alcohol sales to the Bartender/Bar Server on shift. Bartenders/Bar Servers tip out only on food sales. Sales for all gratuity employees exclude merchandise and gift cards, non-alcoholic beverages and alcoholic beverages, except as above.

Employees who receive tips (Servers, Carhops, Greeters and others while working on shifts doing take out) do not receive tip out, other than Bartender/Bar Server as referenced above, who receive tip out on alcohol sales.

The tip out on internal take out sales will be ten percent (10%) of tips. Sales exclude third party merchandise and gift cards. In the event that public health orders lead to the closure of dine-in service for any period of time, the ten percent (10%) tip out on internal take out sales will apply during that period.

The tip out for dine-in/car lot will increase by point five percent (0.5%) on June 1, 2025.

Where an automated system is not in place, the tip pool will be administered by two (2) members, each paid thirty dollars ($30) bi-weekly.

Note: Exclusion of non-alcoholic beverages, other than milkshakes, will take effect with the May 2025 menu change.
